

Tuesday 24 November 2009

Social Housing Training Consortium

Seminar Programme

12.30pm Registration followed by coffee and a buffet lunch

13.10 Welcome and Introduction

13.15 Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act: what next?

Presented by Helen Iles, Associate/Training Manager

This session will look at the framework of the new vetting and barring system and practically assess how the social housing sector begins to comply with its new obligations.

This session will also take a peek at what 2010 has in store for all employers, allowing you to get up to speed before the advent of the New Year, and a new set of rules.

---

14.15 Coffee break

14.30 Employment Law Surgery

Facilitated by Alison Love, Partner and Head of Employment & HR Services and Louise Price, Senior Associate

Adopting a practical approach, this question and answer session allows you to seek legal and practical guidance on the current issues you're battling against.

Alison and Louise will deliver their expert opinion on the topics relevant to you.

---

15.00 With only one month to go.....Festive Quiz!

15.20 Closing Remarks

---

For more information or to book your place, please contact Jennifer Horton on 029 2055 7410 or email jennifer-horton@chcymru.org.uk

Further event information is available at: www.hughjames.com/events

HUGH JAMES